It is understood that the Humane Society for Boone County (HSforBC) is the rightful owner of the meet & greet animal until such time that it is approved for adoption. It is also understood that a friendly animal, once in your home, may show aggressive or unpredictable behavior. It is your responsibility to monitor the animal for the safety of your family as well as the animal's welfare.

If for any reason you decide that the animal is not going to fit into your home, you must notify HSforBC and keep the animal safe until such time as arrangements can be made for pick up or return.

You agree to hold the HSforBC and its agents harmless for any loss or injury you, or your family, may receive during the course of your meet & greet. There are certain risks inherent in handling animals and it is understood you accept those risks. If an accident or injury should occur, no matter how minor, you must notify HSforBC.

It is your decision and responsibility to seek any necessary medical attention. HSforBC is not responsible for any medical bills you may incur due to injury during your meet & greet time.

Your signature confirms that you are requesting a meet & greet with an animal from the Humane Society for Boone County and that you understand the terms and conditions of this agreement.
